

Looking for something fun and different? Have a children's author visit your school!

Sparking interest in creative writing can open up whole new worlds to young minds. Give your school the chance to hear and ask questions from a published children's author. Kevin Franz, author of the Castle Rose Adventures series and owner of Starbell Books, has put together a fun and interactive assembly for elementary schools in the area. Here's what you'll get:

- A motivating creative writing workshop – how to turn ideas into stories
- An overview of the book creation process
- A reading from one of his books
- Extensive Question & Answer session
- Children have the opportunity to purchase signed and personalized books at discounted prices.

About the books . . .

Into the Hidden Lands is a fantasy adventure tale of two young princesses who discover a portal to a magical land. The book was written to appeal to the 6-12 year old age group, and has been very well received. Here are a few of the comments:

“What a wonderful read! I was hooked at once . . .”

Barbara C. Johnson, M.Ed., NBCT
First Grade Teacher

2004 Wisconsin State Teacher of the Year.

“The Castle Rose Adventures are stories with the right blend of danger, fantasy, adventure and coziness that should delight children ages 6-10.”

Pat Campbell – Head Children's Department, West Allis Public Library

“A story where the girls are heroes and true companions”

Jerry O'Shea – Principal, Meadow View Elementary School, Plainfield, Illinois
